

Press Release

3/27/2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Bob Hilton, Marketing and Development Manager
(916) 625-5205 | bob.hilton@rocklin.ca.us

Subject: Hot Summer Concert Season Announced at Rocklin's Quarry Park

The City of Rocklin is pleased to announce the 2019 summer concert season at Quarry Park's Platinum Living Amphitheater. This year, the City will feature a variety of talent and musical genres that the community and region have been asking for. Tickets for all concerts go on sale April 2. The 2019 season lineup includes:

Friday, May 3

The City of Rocklin and 101.9 the Wolf presents the "Who's Next Concert Series," featuring Travis Denning. Come listen and dance to Country Music's next rising stars.

Saturday, May 11

"Placer County Rocks at the Quarry!" presented by the Loomis Basin Brewing Company and the City of Rocklin. It's the 2nd annual brew fest with live music, delicious foods, and amazing local breweries.

Friday, June 28

Rodney Atkins, the multi-billboard award-winning country artist, makes his Rocklin debut. Atkins will play songs from his upcoming album "Caught Up in the Country," and many other fan favorites.

Saturday, August 10

Big Sam's Funky Nation brings the soul of Bourbon Street to Quarry Park for a New Orleans-style funk and rock dance party.

Saturday, September 7

Rounding out the season, Rocklin presents "The Ultimate Elvis." Graceland approved Elvis impersonator Justin Shandor brings the spirit of the King alive in this timeless, spectacular throwback show.

For more information about ticket sales, concerts and events, visit Facebook and Instagram @RocklinQuarryPark or on the web at www.MeetMeAtTheQ.com.