Citizens may address the Planning Commission on any items on the agenda, when the item is considered. Citizens wishing to speak may request recognition from the presiding officer by raising his or her hand and stepping to the podium when requested to do so. Although not required, speakers are requested to identify themselves by stating their name and city of residence for the official record.

For items not listed on the agenda, any person may do so under "Citizens Addressing the Planning Commission on non-agenda items." Three to five-minute time limits may be placed on citizen comments. As a reminder, the Brown Act does not permit the Commission to take action on items not on the agenda.

All remarks shall be addressed to the Commission as a body and not to any member thereof, or to staff, or to the public. No person, other than a member of the Commission, and the person having the floor, shall be permitted to enter into any discussion without the permission of the presiding officer.

Whenever any group of persons wishes to address the Commission on the same subject matter, it shall be proper for the Chairman to request that a spokesperson be chosen.

Any person who disrupts the meeting of the Commission, may be barred by the Chairman from further audience before the Commission during that meeting.
