Applications to fill a vacant seat on the City of Rocklin Planning Commission are being accepted now through January 27 at 4 p.m. Candidates who meet requirements will be interviewed in open session during a special City Council meeting scheduled for February 9 at 5 p.m. The selected candidate will serve a term covering the period through June 30, 2018.

Applicants can apply online or by downloading an application at Rocklin.ca.us. All hardcopy applications must be submitted to the City Clerk's Office at 3970 Rocklin Road.

The Planning Commission vacancy was created when former commissioner Jill Gayaldo was appointed to Rocklin City Council on January 5.
