The anniversary celebration will be held Feb. 24 at Quarry Park with speakers, music, food trucks, historic and current displays. Other events will include an official announcement at the city's tree lighting, a Rocklin Chamber of Commerce dinner in January, an art contest and Fun Run in April and a parade with the Kiwanis Club Community Celebration in May. "It's a safe, family-fun experience for all ages. From toddler to grandparent, guests will enjoy their adventure as they take on unique and exciting challenges built into and around a 160-year old Granite Quarry.'

Adventures will offer a history lesson, too. The old quarry, where families will be playing, provided some of the materials used to build California's State Capitol, as well as some historic buildings in San Francisco. Mayor Scott Yuill said, "Rocklin's beginnings connect to the transcontinental railroad, playing a key role in transporting granite quarried in the city for use in buildings, including the State Capitol, across California. Rocklin has a rich history, and we're proud to celebrate it; both by honoring the foundation and character upon which it was built and looking forward to its future success."

She was searching for a community with the best schools and neighborhoods.

"I found that Rocklin was a perfect fit for our family."

Schools are some of the best in Placer County, she said.

Rocklin Unified School District has 11 elementary, two middle, two comprehensive and one continuation high schools and an independent K-12 charter school. The two-year Sierra College and four-year William Jessup University are located there.

Rocklin offers a range of housing opportunities fit bit every buyer's needs and budget, Immers said.

Currently there are 107 resale homes on the market that range from $159,999 to $1,745,000. Median price is $562,184.

Ajo Antony and his family moved in March to a CalAtlantic home in Bridgewood at Whitney Ranch. He had an idea of what he wanted in a home and the plan he selected has everything.

"I like the house and it has a nice backyard and good space," he said. "Whitney Ranch is nice and clean...a beautiful, nice neighborhood."

CalAtlantic is also offering homes at Autumn Crossing and Ironwood at Whitney Ranch.

Other new-home builders and their communities include Cresleigh Homes, Rocklin Trails; JMC Homes, The Overlook, The Ridge, The Park, Wild Oak and The Bluffs; KB Homes, both at Spring Valley. Young said three new projects received approval from the city council. They include a proposed mixeduse development for 20 attached townhomes and 7,891 square feet of retail office space on South Whitney Boulevard; the Rocklin Gateway project which will bring approximately 200 additional multi-family units; and the Sierra Pine subdivision project which includes entitlements to develop 199 single-family, mediumdensity residential lots..

The city has a variety of shopping and dining places including two large shopping centers - Rocklin Crossings and Rocklin

Commons - at the intersection of Highway 80 and Sierra College Boulevard. Retailers include Bass Pro Shops, Green Acres Nursery and Supply, Target and Walmart, several restaurants and entertainment. Young noted several new businesses including Prospect Snow and Wake, a ski and board factory; Kathrin's Biergarten, which offers local craft beers and German food; Sushi Kakogan, a sushi bar; Kabab Hut, Pakistani and Indian cuisine; and The Brass Tap, with beers on tap and bottled.

Rocklin Station is a major commercial project to be anchored by a Cracker Barrel restaurant and a Les Schwab Tires store. Mayor Yuill said, "The City of Rocklin offers a number of advantages for its businesses and residents. In 2016, Rocklin was the fourth fastest-growing city in California, benefitting from a workforce educated by four regional institutions of higher education, two of which are within the city limits."

"Rocklin is also part of the thriving capital region, offering proximity to the greater Bay Area," he said. "Add to the mix its high median incomes, recognition as one of the safest cities in California and among the top-15 cities in the nation for young families, Rocklin is indeed a special place." editor based in Folsom.

As of July, all Rocklin parks are tobacco-free.
