

Tell us what you need

Complete Roseville and Rocklin's community needs survey

The Cities of Roseville and Rocklin and the Roseville Housing Authority are conducting a survey to better understand the housing and services needs of our communities.

The results of this survey will help guide future use of City and federal grant funding for services, housing, and community programs and improvements.

Take this brief survey through October 31, 2019 by visiting roseville.ca.us/housing

Survey is available in English and Spanish.

